

Free event, all are welcome to attend!

Social Media Essay Contest Award Ceremony and Speakers Event

This event will showcase the winners of our student essay contest on the pros and cons of social media, and feature a public lecture by Dr. Rob Gehl, University of Utah, who will present his paper, "A Deep Dive into the Marianas Web: Surveillance, Information, and Mythologies of the Dark Web," and a paper by doctoral candidate, Safaneh Neyshabouri on "#Resistance on Social Media: From Toppling Governments to Everyday Life."

Friday, March 1, 2019 | 4:00 – 6:30 p.m.
Taylor Institute Forum - TI 160

Registration is appreciated: ucalgaryessaycontest.weebly.com/event.html

Sponsors:

Calgary Institute for Humanities
Department of Communication,
Media and Film
School of Languages, Linguistics,
Literatures and Cultures
Haskayne School of Business

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY